

Happenings in the Office of Attorney General Steve Carter

July 9, 2007

Carter and 5 members of the Board of Directors

AG Carter Appoints Community Leaders in Reform of the Olin B. & Desta Schwab Foundation

FORT WAYNE, IN – Ten members of the Fort Wayne Community have been selected to serve on the Olin B. & Desta Schwab Indiana Foundation Board of Directors, completing the transition from an interim board to a permanent board announced Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter.

More. Article from the Fort Wayne Journal Gazette

Diploma Mill Websites Shut Down after AG Intervention

Indiana University joins Carter in expressing concern about sales of fake documents

SOUTH BEND, IN – Attorney General Steve Carter has obtained an agreed order from the LaPorte Circuit Court halting two Michigan City businesses engaged in the sale of imitation high school and university diplomas via the Internet. Michael Everett and David Schoettlin are prohibited from selling or transferring the domain names

www.DiplomasAndMore.com and www.DocumentProfessionals.com, from where the fake diplomas were sold. Carter also filed a lawsuit against the company seeking penalties for violating Indiana's Deceptive Consumer Sales Act. More

"It was important to halt the activities of this company so the reputation and value of a high school and university diploma wasn't further harmed," Carter said.

Carter Raises Awareness of Unnecessary Commercial Deed Service Clark and Floyd County Recorders Applaud Efforts

JEFFERSONVILLE, IN - Consumers wishing to obtain a copy of the deed to their home need to pay no more than a dollar or two and should be cautious of offers that cost nearly $60 for the same product announced Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter, Clark County Recorder Richard Jones and Floyd County Recorder Linda Berger. More

Attorney General Carter, Floyd County Recorder Linda Berger and Clark County Prosecutor Steve Stewart alert consumers

Article from the New Albany News & Tribune

AG Chief Deputy Honored for Public Service

CLARKSVILLE, IN – Indiana Attorney General Steve Carter today recognized the outstanding public service Southern Indiana native Gregory Zoeller has given to the State of Indiana over the past two decades. Zoeller was born in New Albany and grew up in Clarksville, Indiana.

“Greg’s commitment and dedication to public service is unwavering,” Carter noted. “He is a trusted advisor, with vast knowledge and expertise in state and national policy issues. Southern Indiana has produced some great talent, and I’m here to highlight one of those individuals today.” More & read this article from the Louisville Courier Journal

AG Carter Applauds Legislative Efforts to Enhance Deceptive Acts by Notary Publics advertising as Notarios Publicos

INDIANAPOLIS, IN – A person advertising as a Notario Publico must now provide certain disclosures under enhancements to Indiana law announced Attorney General Steve Carter. The new provisions for notary publics that would advertise their services as a Notario Publico took effect July 1, 2007.